A good story is told of a Bostonian's first appearance in polite society in Arkansas, which might be applicable to this city. The company were engag-ed in dancing, but the lovliest female present occupied a chair at the window, without a partner. Stepping up to the lady, with a palpitating heart, his mind

"Yes-sir-ree! for I've sot, and sot, and sot, till I've 'bout tuk root!"

A Spaniard sent his son to the University of Salamaca, and told him to study economy, and to eat beef rather than poultry. On arriving, the young gentleman asked the price of "About twenty dollars." "And partridges?" "Twenty-five cents."
